IAM STARGUARD ELITE BRINGS SAFETY TRAINING TO TOUR OPERATORS

IAM StarGuard Elite introduces new a training program: STAR Adventures for Cruise Ship Tour operators at the Florida Caribbean Cruise Association Trade Show.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, September 29, 2016– IAM StarGuard Elite successfully introduced themselves to the Cruise Tour Operators and port agencies at the 23rd annual Florida Caribbean Cruise Association Trade Show. IAM StarGuard Elite joined as an associate member and exhibited at the trade show to showcase their new certification “STAR Adventures”. “STAR Adventures” is a comprehensive training program that includes CPR, AED, Basic First Aid, and Water Awareness for Tour Operator employees.

“The cruise ship industry focuses on the safety and security of their guests as they visit the world. The STAR Adventures program provides consistent training to increase the standard of care for the over 20 million annual cruise guests.”

-James Harhi

“STAR Adventures” was successfully rolled out in a pilot program for tour operators in South Abaco, Bahamas. The eight-hour training course provided a one-year certification for tour operator employees to learn the necessary skills to assist a guest in distress on a shore excursion. IAM StarGuard Elite also performed a risk analysis and provided equipment recommendations for the individual tour operators.

IAM StarGuard Elite (SGE) is a Risk Prevention and Training company based in Windermere, FL. SGE provides services for over eighty worldwide clients. SGE provides customer friendly and objective driven content to increase safety and reduce risk for operations. IAM StarGuard is a sister company of Innovative Attraction Management (www.i-amllc.com).
